MENTAL HEALTH POLICY

The National Mental Health Policy, announced in October, 2014, is based, inter-alia, on the values and principles of equity, justice, integrated and evidence-based care, quality, participatory and holistic approach to mental health. Its goals and objectives include the following:

- to reduce distress, disability, exclusion, morbidity and premature mortality associated with mental health problems across life-span of a person,
- to enhance understanding of mental health in the country,
- to provide universal access to mental health care,
- to increase access to mental health services for vulnerable groups,
- to reduce risk and incidence of suicide and attempted suicide,
- to ensure respect for rights and protection from harm of persons with mental health problems, and reduce stigma associated with mental health problems
- to enhance availability and distribution of skilled human resources for mental health.

Andrew Yule & Co. Ltd. (AYCL) has adopted the "Mental Health Policy" in compliance with Business Responsibility & Sustainability Reporting. It also co-ordinates the "Group insurance Policy" for the well-being of the employees of the Company in addition to other measures.
