(Please note that all the quoted fees will remain firm and valid for the next five years)

EXECUTION OF AGREEMENT

An agreement will be executed with the successful vendor at the mutual terms and conditions.

TERMINATION OF CONTRACT

AYCL reserves the right to terminate this Contract without any prior notice.

AWARD OF CONTRACT

The evaluation process will be based on QCBS (Quality & Cost Based Selection) methodology.

The contract will be awarded based on the highest marks obtained according to the following evaluation criteria:

- Overall Weightage:
 - Part I + Part II: 70%
 - Part III: 30%

Part I – Technical Bid: 90 Marks

- Each item mentioned in Clauses A, B, and C of the Technical Evaluation Sheet will be awarded 2 marks, on confirmation of availability of the feature.

Part II – Demonstration and Presentation: 10 Marks

- Evaluation based on the quality and effectiveness of the demonstration and presentation.

Bidders obtaining more than 60 percentage marks (Part-I + Part-II) in Technical Evaluation shall only be considered for financial evaluation.

Part III – Financial Bid: 100 Marks

- The lowest bid (L1) will be given 100 marks.
- For each subsequent higher bid (L2, L3, L4, etc.), proportionately lower marks will be arrived based on the formula of:

$$\text{L2 marks} = (\text{L1 bid value} / \text{L2 bid Value}) \times 100$$

Similarly, L3 marks = (L1 bid value / L3 bid Value) X 100

The selection of successful bidder shall be arrived based on the bidder who obtained highest score (H1 score) through the following equation:

Successful Bidder score = (Technical percentage score) X 0.7 + (Financial percentage score) X 0.3

Note: If during the presentation, the vender fails to demonstrate the required features mentioned in Technical Evaluation Sheet, allotted Marks will be deducted.
